Business area: General · Organiser: Ghulam Ali

■ Business area could not be determined for the organiser — this note uses the general template. Check the adviser's Entra group or department.

Summary

Discussion covered increasing super contributions, maintaining the current investment allocation, pending cash-flow planning for a possible investment-property sale, insurance review, estate-planning referral, and follow-up arrangements.

Decisions

- Client agreed to pursue an additional $5,000 salary-sacrifice super contribution before financial year-end.
- No change to the balanced growth fund allocation was recommended at this time; current allocation remains 70% growth and 30% defensive.
- Finalisation of the cash-flow plan is pending the client's decision on whether to sell the investment property.
- Risk questionnaire will be redone at the next review.

Risks / flags

- Cash-flow plan cannot be finalised until the client confirms whether the investment property will be sold this year.
- Exact carry-forward contribution amount has not yet been verified.
- Income protection cover may have changed or ceased following departure from the former employer; policy details are required before any recommendation.
- Estate-planning documents may need updating following the birth of the client's children.
